Rani Mol.DABSTER, Inter University Centre for IPR Studies, Cochin University of Science and Technology (CUSAT)

I am currently a research scholar at the Inter-University Centre for IPR Studies (IUCIPRS), Cochin University of Science and Technology (CUSAT). My topic for the research is the Concepts of well-Known marks and trademark dilution. I am trying to critically analyze the application of Indian Trademark law in our country. I would also like to give some suggestions and recommendations on how our Judiciary's application of trademark law has to be guided. I believe that trademark law is expanded flexibly to suit today's commercial conundrums. But this is said to be done by means of forgetting some of the backbone factors of trademark law. I did my five-year LLB graduation from Govt. Law College Ernakulam, Kerala. After completing my graduation, I joined the integrated course of LLM (IPR) Ph.D. in Inter-University Centre for IPR Studies (IUCIPRS), Cochin University of Science and Technology (CUSAT). I have completed my LLM and am currently a research scholar. It has been more than four years since I joined as a research scholar. I have submitted three chapters of my thesis, and the rest of my work will be carried out.
